

Sharing my Thoughts

When I was installed as President of Sisterhood I started my speech by saying the two things in life no one can take away from you are your dreams and memories.

One of my dreams at this moment is to see the Sanctuary filled with our Temple family and friends and faces showing contentment holding on to their own hopes and dreams.

Times are difficult right now for everyone and that's why I'm focusing on the beautiful memories I have shared with my family and friends as life goes on.

As Passover approaches I wish all of you strength and peace.

Be Well and Be Safe,

Dale Alterman

President of Sisterhood
